No. 88
Secl. One

From

C.R.C.Kiernander Esquire,
Special Auditor General in Mysore.

To

The Dewan of Mysore.

Sir,

In reference to our conversation this morning regarding laxity of procedure I enclose copy of a letter addressed to the General Secretariat in March last regarding a sum of Rs. 30,305 outstanding between the Civil and the P.W. Account Offices. No answer has yet been received and the amount hangs fire and cannot be adjusted and this is by no means a solitary instance of the rapid manner in which financial cases are disposed of in the Secretariat. You might perhaps agree with me that it would be of advantage to the Government to call on the Comptroller to submit a list of similar cases.

in Mysore.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. 88 dated, Bangalore 10th July 1902, about the sum of Rs 30,305 which was outstanding between the Civil and the P.W. Accounts Offices, I am desired to state that the expenditure referred to has since been adjusted in Govt order No Fl 73-9 dated 12th July 1902.

I am also to add that an observation couched in sarcastic language is out of place in an official communication. The Dewan is satisfied that in this matter the delay was due to press of work and that the Secretariat is not to blame.

The Comptroller also could easily have pressed for early orders by reminders-
